

End of Year Party – Rehovot 1

This year, we are putting on a set of short skits based on the book "There's a Carrot in my Ear," about the "Noodle" Family....a family of...shall we say, not so brilliant people. I hope you enjoy them, and bear with the scene changes!!!

So...without further ado....presenting: The Noodle family's Adventures!
(The children wal out with the sign.)

Skit No. 1 – Is it Time?

Props: Large "Pocket watch"

Kids enter in line and stand side by side, with legs and arms crossed all the same.

Kid 1: Is it time...? .runs the line down to Kid 7.

Kid 7 (looks at her watch): no. (No back down the line to Kid 1)

(Wait for the count of 5)

Kid 1: : Is it time? (repeat that, and no.....)

(Wait for the count of 5)

Kid 1: : Is it time? (repeat that, and no.....)

(Wait for the count of 5)

*Kid 1: : Is it time? etc

Kid 7 looks at watch: Yes!!! (Send the yes down.)

*Kid 1: : 1, 2, 3...GO!!!

Everyone switches the crosses.

Seller is standing near a pile of pumpkins.

Grandpa (walks by): What are those?

Seller: Don't you know? They are horse eggs. Just sit on them for a day and a night and you will get a baby horse.

Grandpa: OOOOh! Jill and Jane would like that. I'll buy one. (Pays the seller and takes the pumpkin.)

Narrator: So Grandpa puts the pumpkin in a nice spot on the top of a hill, and sits on the pumpkin all day (shine flashlight) and all night (turn off flashlight), waiting for the "horse egg" to hatch. In the morning, (turn on flashlight), he is so tired, he starts to fall asleep and falls off the egg. ..(Grandpa falls over, "off" the pumpkin).

Narrator: When Grandma falls off the pumpkin, the pumpkin rolls down the hill, behind a bush, and scares a sleeping rabbit.

RABBIT jumps out and runs away.

Grandpa: Oh oh!...Come Back little horse.

(The rabbit turns to look and grandma, and then runs away off stage)

Grandpa: Come back.....oh dear!

Narrator: Grandma goes back to the seller.

Grandpa (very angry): I want my money back!

Seller: Why, didn't you get a horse? (to audience) Ha ha, I fooled her!

Narrator: But it is the seller who gets the surprise!!!

Grandma: I did get a little horse...but he ran away.

THE END
